* By your signature above and membership with the Pekin Saddle Club, Inc., you have indicated that you have met with a member of the Membership Committee and have received a copy of the By-Laws and the Ground Rules and they have been explained to me. I also accept the limits of liability resulting from inherent risks of equine activities. Under Indiana law, an equine activity sponsor or professional shall not be liable for any injury to, or death of a participant or equine in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities.
 34-6-2-69. "Inherent risk of equine activities" means the dangers or conditions that are an integral part of equine activities, including but not limited to the following:
 (1) The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around the equine.
 (2) The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to such things as sound, sudden movement, unfamiliar objects, people, or other animals.
 (3) Hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions.
 (4) Collisions with other equines or objects.
 (5) The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the animal or not acting within the participant's ability.

New members will be on probation for one year, starting with the date you joined (Effective Date).
